

Contribution ID : 43

Type : Contributed talk

Scotogenic Models: Problems and Solutions.

Monday, 23 May 2016 15:40 (20)

The Scotogenic models provide a solution to neutrino physics and also to the Dark Matter problem. However, this appealing framework is not absent of problems, which can come from the mass of the Dark Matter candidate up to its stability. In this talk, the Scotogenic models will be introduced and some of the problems and possible solutions will be reviewed, with a special emphasis in the stability problem.

Primary author(s) : ROJAS ROJAS, Nicolas (IFIC, CSIC-Univ Valencia)

Presenter(s) : ROJAS ROJAS, Nicolas (IFIC, CSIC-Univ Valencia)

Session Classification : Astro-Neutrino 1

Track Classification : Astro/Cosmo/Neutrinos