

Summary slide

- ❑ It is possible to teach fundamental concepts of Einsteinian physics (EP) at the primary and secondary school level
 - ❑ Results have shown significant improvement in female students' understanding and attitude
 - ❑ Extensive practical lessons and a classroom setting is necessary for imparting derived concepts
 - ❑ Teacher training – Adequate materials for teachers is necessary
 - ❑ Key to teaching EP – tangible and tactile tools in the form of models and analogies
-