AI Initiative for Science

---

IFIC - Valencia, November 2021

The poster features a blue background with a digital theme, including binary code (0s and 1s) and abstract geometric shapes. At the top, the text 'AI INITIATIVE FOR SCIENCE' is written in white. Below this, 'IFIC, València' and '25th Nov - 26th Nov 2021' are displayed in white. A paragraph describes the conference as a two-day event covering AI applications in physics, quantum computing, biology, and other fields. The organizing committee members are listed below. A QR code is located in the bottom left corner of the poster area. At the bottom, logos for IFIC, Universitat de València, CSIC, Gen=T, and Generalitat Valenciana are shown.

Thanks for coming to the official kick-off!

Beyond this meeting

Monthly online talk on cutting-edge AI technique, or interesting multidisciplinary experience

Match-making events
field expert looks for a data science expert

Hackdays/Hackathons
to explore new opportunities in datasets

We will coordinate all these activities through our webpage notify attendants when the page is fully operational
